

Announcing the First Annual Orpheus Cup Invitational! Saturday, September 17 from 4:00-7:00 PM

The Orpheus Cup Invitational was created to benefit Orpheus Pagan Chamber Choir, a celebration of the ineffable intermingling of Mead, Magic, Music, & Song.

Share your mead with over 150 mead lovers at a Private Tasting Party! Homebrewers are invited to bring mead to be shared and tasted, and also to compete in as many mead sub-categories as they like...prizes will be awarded in each sub-category represented and for Best of Show.

- Location: An expansive private home in Brighton, CO
- To reserve a table: please email our tasting coordinator at ravensongarts@gmail.com
- This is a private mead-only competition, following American Homebrewers Association guidelines.
- This competition is limited to Colorado state residents.
- Entry fees: $10 for each sub-category entry. An entry shall consist of one or two 10 oz - 22 oz bottles.
- Convenient drop-off locations can be arranged.
- Competing brewers are encouraged to be part of the tasting.
- Please bring signage, tablecloths, plastic tasting cups, and any ice or coolers you might need.
- Volunteering to Help? Judges and stewards are needed for this event. Contact the coordinator, Andrew Adams, at ravensongarts@gmail.com. Certification and experience in judging is helpful but not required. There will be an informal training session at a time and place to be determined.

For Complete Information, Competition Rules & Entry Forms:
ravensongarts@gmail.com